

Journey Map

Instructions: Start by first filling out the pain points at each stage – the things that might prevent your audience from moving to the next stage. Then fill out the touch points – the moments where they'll interact with your brand or see content. Finally add whatever information or data you have available.

